- Your visit to and any interaction with any of our social media pages i.e. Meta (formerly facebook).

We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting the personal data about you that we process. All personal data is processed in compliance with the European Union General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Below is a description of how we collect, process and share your personal data.

2. WEBSITE AND SOCIAL MEDIA VISITORS

WHAT PERSONAL DATA WILL BE PROCESSED?	When you visit our website we process your Internet Protocol address, browser language, geographical location data, date and time, and information about webpages accessed by you. We collect personal data directly from you. You may submit or offer personal data to us through our social media pages.
FOR WHAT PURPOSES DO WE PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL DATA?	Your personal data is processed for the purpose of making the website available to you and to develop and enhance the usability of the website. Furthermore, we may also use your personal data for marketing purposes, such as re-marketing on other websites. In addition, there may be further reasons why we use your personal data, and on these occasions, we will notify you prior to submitting your personal data.

WHAT IS THE LEGAL BASIS FOR PROCESSING OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

Processing of your personal data is based on our legitimate interest to ensure that you are given access to a website that provides you with easy access to the interface, functions and information you seek. Furthermore, processing for marketing purposes is based on our legitimate interest in marketing our products. When balancing interests, we have determined that we have a legitimate interest to make the website available to you in a user-friendly and well-functioning manner and to provide you with interest-based advertising. We ensure that the particular processing this entails is necessary to achieve such purposes, and that our interests outweigh your right not to have your personal data processed for these purposes. The processing activities are limited and not deemed to affect personal integrity to a large extent. You are always entitled to object to this assessment. You can read further about your rights below. Where we are processing personal data that you have submitted to us, then we may also rely on your consent or for the purpose of fulfilling a contract.

WHO HAS ACCESS TO YOUR PERSONAL DATA?	We have taken appropriate technical and organizational security measures to protect your personal data against loss and unauthorized access, etc. The number of people who have access to your personal data is limited. Only people at Enzymatica AB or those third parties we may identify to you prior to collecting your personal data, and who need to process your personal data in accordance with the purposes referred to above have access to the personal data.
HOW LONG DO WE SAVE YOUR PERSONAL DATA?	Your personal data is stored for differing amounts of time depending on the nature of your interaction with our website; for inquiries or complaints the time that data is stored for is specified in the sections below. However, some of your personal data is collected via the use of cookies and may be stored for a longer period of time as each cookie has a specific storage period. These individual storage periods relating to specific cookies are available in our Cookie Policy.

Enzymatica uses cookies and similar technologies that collect and store information when you visit the website. This is to enable Enzymatica to identify your internet browser and collect data on your use of our website, which pages you visit, the duration of your visits and identify these when you return so that we improve your experience when visiting our website. You can control and manage your cookies preferences by adjusting your browser settings or using the ColdZyme cookie preference tool on ColdZyme Websites – for more information, please refer to the ColdZyme Cookie Policy at www.coldzyme.co.uk, www.coldzyme.dk, www.coldzyme.fi, www.coldzyme.no, www.precold.is, www.coldzyme.is
